

Accidental Shooting Fatal To Student

LEO GANNON, JR., LAID TO REST TODAY.

The accidental shooting of Leo Gannon, Jr., 16, that occurred Monday evening, cast a gloom over the entire community, especially the boys and girls of Grayling school.

Just how the accident occurred nobody can tell. He was discovered near the roadway a short distance from the county garage by Frank Muth and Rolia Hull who were hauling firewood. He was found with a gunshot wound in the head. Rushed to Mercy hospital he died three hours later, at 10:00 p. m. When found, beside him was a 22 calibre rifle with one exploded shell in the chamber.

Workers in the nearby Kerry & Hanson Flooring Co. mill reported having seen the young man at about 4:00 p. m. carrying the gun. At school he had asked to be excused about 2:00 p. m.

Those who knew this fine-looking, dark eyed young lad cannot help but feel a deep sadness over this unfortunate affair. Among the members of Grayling Golf club, where Junior served as caddy, he was always held in high esteem and admired for his manliness and for the fine, intelligent way in which he conducted himself.

In school he was a good student and considered among its better citizens, always well behaved and courteous at all times. A member of the Junior class, he was very popular with his classmates.

Funeral services were held at St. Mary's church this Thursday morning and the church was crowded with school pupils and friends of the family. The members of his class attended in a body, and the pallbearers who were Jack Hall, Carl Henry Nelson, Weldon Nelson, Robert Chappell, Teddy Nelson and Clayton Gorman were classmates. Junior had served as altar boy at St. Mary's church and Rev. F. M. Moloney knew him very intimately and he paid a beautiful tribute to him in his sermon. Interment was in Elmwood cemetery.

Leo Francis Gannon, Jr., was born August 2nd, 1924 at Fredonia, Wis. He had been spending most of his life in Grayling, where the family have resided for many years. His father, Leo Gannon Sr., is manager of the Big Bay, News.

Much, branch of the Kerry & Hanson Flooring Co., where he was when notified of the tragedy. Besides the parents, those surviving include twin sisters Beverly and Audrey and two brothers, Thomas and William, also his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Smock of Fredonia and Mrs. G. L. C. Rnell of Saginaw. All were present at the funeral services together with an aunt Mrs. W. E. Lewis and children, Winifred, Agnes and Billy, of Saginaw.

The passing of the young man is very unfortunate and his parents and other members of the family have the sympathy of the people of the community in their sorrow.

Resent Road Built Without Authority

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne J. Gaynor of Detroit, who own a cottage and 40 acres on KP lake, were in Grayling first of the week. They seemed put out over the fact that a road had been built into their property without their knowledge.

They claimed to have visited the clerk of the Road commission and were told that he knew nothing about the road being built. Likewise at the County garage, the bookkeeper claimed he had no knowledge of the road being built. Supt. James Knibbs, however, said he had orders from the Commission to build the road, and agreed that there had been no petition by the property owners nor had the road been posted to inform property owners, as is required by law.

Also they claimed that gravel had been taken from their own pit by the County Road trucks that was not paid for. They say they like it here in the North but don't like to be imposed upon.

FLYING A DIVE BOMBER OF THE U. S. NAVY

These dive bombers give the enemy plenty of punishment, but the men who pilot them also take plenty themselves. Commander Smith, one of Uncle Sam's dive bombing aces, tells about his experiences in this type of service and reveals how daring American aviators originated this kind of offensive. Be sure to read his article in this week, the magazine with next Sunday's Detroit Sr., is manager of the Big Bay, News.

The boiler and fuel room are in a separate building, adjoining the main structure and provides safety and contributes to cleanliness.

The Hunter Dairy is a great asset to Grayling and is one of the finest and most modern ones in Northern Michigan. Mr. Amos Hunter, the enterprising owner, is to be congratulated for his progressiveness.

Melvin Marshall was the general contractor and did a good job. He is just completing a new basement for Ernest Borchers and is now building one for William LaGrow. He says he still has two more basements and two fireplaces to put in this fall. Practically all the labor employed in this building was by Grayling people.

Dan Hoesli Retires After 30 Years

SON ERNEST TO SUCCEED AS LOCAL AGENT

Mr. Daniel Hoesli, the well known Grayling Standard Oil agent, will be retired on annuity October 11th.

Mr. Hoesli is one of the pioneer agents of the Saginaw Division, as with the company back in the old lumbering days when Grayling was one of the big lumber towns. Also, during these early days, Dan, as he is known to friends and acquaintances, drove a team of horses and a tank wagon, working many a hot summer's day and a cold winter's night to take care of his friends and neighbors with petroleum products.

Dan has also seen the mills come and go and their place taken by the tourists who patronize this part of Michigan in the summer time, and also the winter sports in the winter time.

Mr. Hoesli has always progressed with the modern ideas and he was among the first to purchase an automobile tank wagon to increase his efficiency in delivering his merchandise.

Today Mr. Hoesli has one of the best equipped trucks for handling gasoline, kerosene and fuel oil.

Dan will be succeeded by his son Ernest, who has been his assistant for the past few years and will give the same satisfactory service that his father has done over the past thirty years.

The friends of Dan wish him all of the good things in life, which he has earned through his courteous and faithful service.

Kiwanis Club Elects Officers

DR. C. R. KEYPORT NEW 1941 PRESIDENT

Judge John Shaffer and Court Stenographer Samuel Atkins were guests of the club. The matter of securing a leader for Grayling Boy Scouts was discussed. There seems to be considerable difficulty in securing the right type of leader for the scouts. A number of suggestions were offered but the matter was left open for future discussion.

Albert E. Hazard was laid to rest with military honors in Elmwood cemetery Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Hazard, age 52 years, a veteran of the World War, making his home at Camp Hartwick Pines, died suddenly Monday morning at 11:30 o'clock while working at the Winter Sports park. Mr. Hazard was born in England, and his only living relative lives there. Folks about town knew Mr. Hazard very well as he made various articles of leather during his spare time and sold them.

Funeral services were held at the Grayling Funeral Home Wednesday afternoon. Chaplain John Samuel from Hartwick Pines Camp assisted by Rev. H. W. Kuhlman officiating. Several members of Grayling Post 106 American Legion attended and a large number of Mr. Hazard's comrades from the camp were present to pay their last respects. INTERMEDIATE FIELD FOR MILITARY AND CIVIL USE under a civil program designed also to improve suitable facilities for the army and navy, it was learned today.

The federal government is considering expenditure of $195,000 for construction and expansion of civil airports in Michigan.

The amount is part of $521,000,000 to be spent under the project during the next several years. Congress is expected to appropriate 80 million dollars for the civil aeronautics board to begin the work in the current fiscal year.

Army and navy recommendations, authorities said, will be given much weight in determining which projects will be started first. The airports will be designed to provide intermediate fields suitable to military uses as well as to assist civil aviation.

Circuit Court Jury Acquits Perry

Today's Circuit Court jury acquitted Perry.

The jury, composed of twelve men, returned its verdict after a trial of three days. The case involved a charge of assault on a woman.

The defendant, Perry, was found not guilty of the charge. The jury heard testimony from several witnesses and deliberated for several hours before reaching its verdict.

The case was brought to court by the State of Michigan. The prosecution argued that Perry had committed the assault, but the jury was not convinced.

The acquittal was a surprise to many in the community, as Perry had been charged with a serious crime. The case will likely be revisited at a later date.

The jury's decision was based on the evidence presented in court. The defense argued that Perry had a valid alibi and was not present at the time of the alleged assault.

The case was a significant one for the community, as it involved a well-known individual. The jury's decision was met with mixed reactions from the public.

The trial was held in a court of law, with both sides presenting their case. The jury's role was to listen to the evidence and reach a verdict based on the law.

The acquittal of Perry is a final decision by the jury. The case is closed, and Perry is free to live his life without the burden of the charges.

The case was a complex one, involving many legal issues. The jury's decision was based on a careful analysis of the evidence and the law.

THE NATION WAS SHOCKED

The nation was shocked when the Michigan legislature passed the amendment to the constitution which would give the people the right to elect the governor and the judges of the supreme court.

The amendment was passed by a vote of 18 to 12 in the Michigan legislature. It was the first time in the history of the state that the people have been given the right to elect their own governor and judges.

The mother of the bride wore blue crepe for her daughter's nuptials and the mother of the groom wore pink and white mums.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the Dearborn Inn, the table lovely with an arrangement of yellow mums. On Friday evening the bride's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Lipman Landsberg, of Inkster entertained the bridal party and relatives at a rehearsal dinner at Westwood Inn.

The bride, one of eight daughters of the Montour family, was born in Grayling and is a graduate of Grayling High school and the groom is a graduate of the Wayne High school and is employed by the Ford Motor Company in Dearborn.

Wednesday, October 16, 1940. The Twentieth day preceding said election, as provided by Sec. 3, Chapter 3, Part II, P. A. 306, Session of 1920. And on—Saturday, October 26, 1940—The Last Day.

From 8 o'clock a. m. until 8 o'clock p. m. on each said day for the purpose of Renewing the Registration and Registering such of the qualified electors in said Township as shall properly apply therefor.

The name of no person but an Actual Resident of the precinct at the time of registration, and entitled under the constitution, if remaining such resident, to vote at the next election, shall be entered in the registration book.

Dated Oct. 8, 1940. Signed: Dan C. Babbitt, Clerk, Grayling Township; Sanford Charron, Clerk, Frederic Township; Martha J. Peterson, Clerk, Maple Forest Township; Frank Millikin, Clerk, Beaver Creek Township; John F. Floeter, Clerk, South Branch Township; Louise McCormick, Clerk, Lovells Township.

The Farm Share. On a per capita basis, the farm population of America must carry about one-fourth, approximately $11,000,000,000, of the national debt. It would take the value of all farm crops for two years to pay the farmers' share.

A Record. Franklin Roosevelt is the only president to serve eight years without balancing the budget in any one year. We have been at peace throughout the eight years.

Your Share $452.00. Total New Deal expenditures from 1933 to 1940, according to the President's report to Congress, were $58,773,000,000. That is $452.00 for each man, woman and child in the nation.

Restumes Duties

Vice President Garner takes the gavel from Sen. Key Pittman, as he resumed his duties as presiding officer in the senate, after a three-month absence.

Did Not Work. That New Deal reciprocal trade agreements did not attract buyers is shown by the purchase, by countries with which these agreements were made, of meat products to the value of 17,644,000 pounds in 1935, before the agreements were made, and only 15,175,000 pounds in 1939, when all agreements were in effect.

Reduced Farm Tariffs. Reciprocal trade agreements made by the New Deal reduced the tariff on 152 agricultural products, despite candidate Roosevelt's statement in 1932: "I know of no excessively high tariff duties on farm products."

3rd and 4th Grades
The 3rd and 4th grade arithmetic class made crowns for the ones who get 100 in their work. No one has had the opportunity to wear one yet.

To teach the children to practice good habits, the class has made an inspection chart which they mark with balloons if they do their morning duties.

This class made a trip to Virgin's gas station in Frederic to see the totem pole there. They are going to make one for their Indian village.

7th and 8th Grades

Glad to Leave Germany After 2 Yrs.

A steady diet of Europe and war palls quickly, at least, Miss Martina Long has lost any enthusiasm she might have had for foreign living. Miss Long arrived home in Maumee (Ohio) Monday after two years in Germany where she went as a graduate student of Tubingen University and remained as a clerk in the United States consulate in Stuttgart.

She intended remaining in Stuttgart until some time in November, but war clouds began darkening in earnest and it was becoming increasingly difficult to get passage home.

Miss Long described Stuttgart as an industrial center and said it has been heavily bombed by the British. She told briefly of participation in air raids and of the comfortable air-raid shelters of the Germans.

Miss Long saw Hitler last year at a celebration. She described him as quite ordinary appearing with cold eyes and a rare smile. According to her version, he is no more puppet of a cabinet of men. He is the power, the brains behind the Nazi movement. Crowds cheer hysterically and wildly at his very appearance. How much of this is real hero worship and how much is fear is impossible to judge.

Miss Long is emphatic in her declaration that she is anti-Nazi. Asked about the brutalities we heard of over here, she smiled and said the ordinary sightseer does not see these things, they are kept under cover. She explained that there is a normal German life going on every day in spite of the war. People work, sleep, and eat, and believe in Hitler's every word. She explained the rationing of food in Germany—some egg, one pound of meat per person per week; one pound of butter a month. Housewives making jams and jellies are allowed an extra pound of sugar. Miss Long cooked her own meals in her apartment. This way she was able to have a fairly decent diet. She said that foods cooked in the German restaurants were not very palatable. The members of the consulate were well fed, better than the German people, but this of course makes good propaganda, according to Miss Long.

Asked about the German women and their clothing problems, Miss Long explained that their dress here are very different to obtain. German women wear thick unbecoming hose and their clothing is far from the latest word. In fact, the German women are quite unattractive. It is impossible, stated Miss Long, to get pure wool and a simple little dress can never be found. Clothes seldom fit well and, in all, the German women seem to think little of their appearance.

Original Coal Gate
The original coal gate in the anthracite was burned for the first time 132 years ago in the district of Wilkes-Barre, Pa. To the grade is attributed the story of the anthracite industry that began in that region.

This Is a Great Country

This is a great country, made up of many different people. It is a country of many different races, religions, and languages. It is a country of many different customs and traditions. It is a country of many different people, but it is a country of many different people.

never learned even to save up the surplus food of summer, and during the winter their people starved. Their chief skill seems to have been the lifting of each other's scap. Before Columbus, the whole area of what is now the United States seems not to have supported at any one time more than about one per cent of its present population.

The American people are the country's great resource, and it is only common sense to include them as well as the forests and the soil in the conservation movement.

Fall

Like a tall and stately Indian, keen and true as his arrow, straight and supple as his bow, is the fall, the handsome Pharaoh.

In the fall world all around us is the beauty of the summer. Is the keenness of the winter. Is the sound of Indian summer. Overnight the leaves turn vivid orange and red and brightest yellow.

Like the feather of the cheetah, freshly bright yet softly mellow. So he comes on silent footsteps, with no loud farewell to summer. Comes, and leaves us quiet as softly.

With dull sound of Indian summer. —Joyce Heath.

RAILROADS PROVING THEMSELVES

Uncle Sam is now in the midst of his biggest peace-time military maneuvers.

He is showing his dependence upon the railroads by asking them to move more than half of the troops and the bulk of the military equipment and material.

The railroads are responding with the finest military aid performance in all their history.

On three days in August they moved into the nation's four army areas a sixth as many men and army impedimenta as they moved in the 30 days of the heaviest month of similar movement in the World War.

And they did the job without a single hitch, with not a delay, many of the hundreds of special trains even moving ahead of schedule. They did it with ample car equipment and power, and at the peak of their summer business, in excessively hot weather in some sections and torrential rains and winds of hurricane force in others.

Yes, the railroads are ready. —Michigan Railroads Assn.

The Sunday School was started in June and is growing fast, due to fine leadership and co-operation of the local townspeople. Both adult and children's classes are taught and all are welcome to attend.

New Tribe at 10,000 Feet

They are confined to a valley 80 miles wide at an altitude of 10,000 feet.

Lansing—Wendell L. Willkie and Governor Luren D. Dickinson have one trait in common; Neither man will make a political speech on Sunday.

When the Republican presidential nominee greeted audiences from the rear platform of his train on a recent Sunday, he said he did not intend to campaign on the Sabbath.

Well, Governor Dickinson doesn't either.

In fact, when an Upper Peninsula editor visited the executive office recently, Dickinson remarked he was not going to campaign in an old-fashioned barnstorming way.

The editor smiled in agreement, and then asked: "And how was the audience yesterday (Sunday) at Owosso?"

Michigan's 81-year-old executive, who had addressed a Bible Fellowship rally, remarked glowingly that several thousand people were present. He said he had "visited" with quite a few.

For Sunday "visiting" during a political campaign, Dickinson's tactics are highly effective. He doesn't talk politics. He just emphasizes the value of personal character and public morality.

You can't argue with God; neither can you accuse the governor of being insincere.

It's one of those things.

Discipline

Last summer the state newspapers sponsored a national defense program at Port Huron. Among the speakers were Governor Dickinson and Murray D. VanWagoner.

Because last-minute complications prevented a visit of Michigan editors to Canada, the enterprising Floyd J. Miller, daily publisher in Royal Oak, obtained as a pinch-hit attraction a Michigan-born newspaperman by the name of Fred Brace from Sparta.

Brace was a Paris correspondent of the New York Herald Tribune in 1919-1920, and he had been with the American Chamber of Commerce at the French capital until its fall to the Nazi in 1940.

"Look at history," he said, "and you will find that it has been a constant swing of the pendulum of public opinion, either towards individual freedom or a disciplined state. France under tyrannical kings had a disciplined state. Bastille Day brought just the opposite—freedom for the individual which in its excess led to a program of the guillotine."

"Russia's history is almost parallel. Who can say that the dictatorship of a Stalin is not worse than the autocratic hand of a czar?"

"Germany had disciplined control under Bismark and Kaiser Wilhelm. In the first and second reich the Germans had individual freedom, but they were not happy. Hitler restored the pendulum to its accepted course—that of a powerful central government of discipline, of law and order."

"In the United States we had individual initiative under Harding, Coolidge, and Hoover. Now we are getting a strong disciplined state under Roosevelt. If centralization of power goes too far, public opinion will demand a return to less regulation by Washington, more freedom for the individual."

Federal Spending

Like the PWA and WPA federal grants to local governments, the national defense program has provided a new field for political cultivation.

Senator Prentiss Brown in his keynote address at Grand Rapids (incidentally delivered by someone else) pointed out that more than one-tenth of all national defense appropriations by the federal government (other than those for the navy) have been with Michigan industrial firms.

"Up to September 17, $275,000,000 of contracts have come to the citizens of our state," he pointed out. "We are proud, that we have the facilities, the capital, the labor to do our part in the defense program. We are also happy for the benefits which have come and will be so largely assigned to our state."

The rush to get political credit for the arms contracts is now on. Rep. Paul Shafer, Republican critic of the New Deal, was not adverse to announcing an important contract with a Battle Creek firm.

Even the heralding news of Willkie's visit to Lansing was eclipsed, in the top newspaper headlines at least, by word of a $9,500,000 contract to manufacture shells at the capital city. Such is plain irony.

Peanut Deficit

At a time when the federal government is headed for a five billion annual deficit and Congress has approved a program calling for eight additional billions, Michigan's modest bookkeeping deficit of $29,000,000 is almost peanuts to state politicians.

The national debt is nearing 49 billions, and a 60 billion total is viewed as inevitable.

What the price of American participation in the war would mean financially is a subject to stagger the imagination. This country spent $6,148,000,000 for military purposes alone during the 1917-18 fiscal year; $11,031,000,000 in the 1918-19 year.

It makes the Michigan concern of a few millions a problem for Budget Director Gus T. Hartman and Auditor General Vernon J. Brown, but for very few others.

Hard-boiled Gus has taken on the state troopers, "fifth columnists" or not. "If the state police want money to finish out the fiscal year, they'll have to get it from the legislature by special appropriation," declared Hartman.

With one-tenth of non-naval arms expenditures already assigned to Michigan, popular spy fever should mount. We venture to guess that Oscar G. Olander, commissioner of state police, will get his money—if not from Hartman, from the next legislature.

Make Applications for Tax Reverted Lands

Lansing, Oct. 6.—Twenty-four Michigan municipalities and towns have ideas about using lands which reverted to the state last November because of tax delinquency, for the benefit of their citizens.

Other cities, towns and villages have opportunity to do likewise and a number of them are preparing plans for approval of the conservation commission whose department administrators tax reverted lands in the northern part of the state.

The law provides that title to such lands, lying within or adjacent to cities, towns and villages may be transferred on sufficient showing by authorities that such lands will be developed as parks, playgrounds, community forests, sites of municipal buildings, or such other uses as will result in public benefit. Municipal authorities also are recommending to the commission the placing on the market of other parcels of lands not incorporated in their plans for public uses.

Two series of meetings have been held in recent months with officials of northern Michigan cities and towns during which representatives of the conservation department's lands division and the Michigan Municipal League have explained details of such permitted transfers.

The 24 applications so far received, which are being checked "on the ground" by lands division representatives, are those of Alpena in Alpena county; Manicou in Antrim county; Boyne City and Charlevoix in Charlevoix; Farwell in Clare; Alanson and Harbor Springs in Emmet; Beaverton in Gladwin; Fife Lake in Grand Traverse; Empire and Northport in Leelanau; Fountain and Ludington in Mason; Barryton and Starwood in Mecosta; Lake City and McBain in Missaukee; Hillman in Montmorency; Evart in Osceola; Millersburg and Rogers City in Presque Isle; Buckley, Manion and Mesick in Wexford.

Municipal authorities are being reminded that the period during which they may make applications for such reverted lands is growing short.

Frederic News

Mrs. Earl Quick of Detroit spent the week end with her mother Mrs. Laura Wallace, of Frederic.

Miss Mary Rogers has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Vance A. Horner at their new home in Frederic. She returned to her home in St. Clair Shores on Wednesday of last week.

Mrs. Walter Krase, Mrs. Liland Charron and son Lee, Mrs. Vance Horner and Miss Mary Rogers visited in Lewiston on Tuesday at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Charron and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Stillwagon.

Vance A. Horner left Tuesday on an extensive business trip which will take him into Ohio and through the New England states.

No Prairie Schooner Either

A Philadelphia street car motorman blinked his eyes in astonishment and then hastily applied the brakes. On the tracks, which are three miles from either the Delaware or Schuylkill river, was a motorboat. Traffic piled up until the boat's owner returned and moved it into a showroom.

Cow Electrocuted

Frank Andrews, rancher, near Gardnersville, Nev., reports the first electrocution of a cow as the result of too much scientific advancement in dairying. Lightning struck the electric transformer of his establishment and short circuited the electricity into the milking machine circuit which in turn carried it to a chain that hung down to a cow's neck.

Mr. and Mrs. George Schauble and son George Jr., were in Lansing over the week end, where they attended the funeral of Mrs. Schauble's uncle William H. Barnes, who passed away Friday in a hospital in Lansing. Mr. Barnes was 88 years old, fell about a month ago and badly fractured his left leg and had been in the hospital since. Mr. Barnes had made his home in Grayling at frequent intervals with the Schaubles, and through these visits became known to many here. Mr. Barnes was a well driller and had drilled hundreds of wells in Lansing before that city had developed a municipal water system. He had been associated with his father in this business for years.

Grayling has been enjoying exceptionally fine weather the past few weeks. The woods are prettier this fall than they have been for several years. Saturday, Sunday and Monday, the temperature ranged between 53 and 56 each morning at 6 o'clock, rising to 82 at noon and dropping in the evening. Tuesday at 6 a. m. the mercury dropped the lowest yet this fall, dropping to 31 degrees. The windows on cars standing out of doors overnight were covered with ice and everything was covered with white frost. By noon it had risen to 52 and dropped to 40 degrees at 6 p. m. This morning the thermometer registered 32 and slowly rising. Monday night we had a little rain, just enough to settle the dust.

In last week's issue, telling of the party at the Grayling Hunt Club, it was John Erkes, instead of Supt. Schauble, who was the host. The party was the result of a bet between John Erkes and Earl Wood, in a golf game played two years ago. Earl won the game therefore it was up to John to put on the party. It took two years to collect the bet, but the party seems to have been worth the wait, according to reports from those present. John ordered about 50 pounds of pig hocks and several quarts of sauerkraut and the John couldn't be present, the party was held anyway. As an added attraction Carlyle Brown and Oscar Charron put on a wrestling match, with the result that Oscar was the loser by a badly scratched nose. The fellows at the Military camp had such a good time that they are hoping there will be more such bets.

Willkie Hits Hard at Deficit, Spending and Third Term.

Wendell Willkie

In the past few years, Mr. Willkie has been assailed by the "progressive" element of the press and the public for his course of action in the campaign for the presidency. He has been accused of being a "reactionary" and of being "out of touch" with the people. But now, when the country is facing a crisis, it is time to look at the man who has been called "the only one who can save the country."

"We have existed in this country for 100 years under the great tradition that two terms are enough for any president. Yet now, when the times are so dark and the danger so great, we are asked to elect a man who has brought about the greatest crisis in our history."

"This campaign is a crusade for the preservation of the American way of life. This is a crusade to establish an example of liberty for all the world. It is a crusade against the concentration of power in Washington. It is a crusade against the egotism of the doctrine of the indispensable man."

Mr. Willkie's endorsement of the present farm program, with modifications to remove objectionable features of administration, eliminates the question of benefit payments as a campaign issue. But on the debt and the third term, Mr. Willkie has fundamental issues to take to the farmer, home owner and business man. The national debt, rapidly approaching 50 billion dollars, he describes as a mortgage on every farm, home and business in America. He predicts that if President Roosevelt is re-elected, the debt will grow to 75 billion dollars within the next four years.

"The great immediate benefit which can be brought to agriculture," says Mr. Willkie, "is restoration of business-like methods in government and the return of the present ten million unemployed to the payrolls so they again can become purchasers of the farmer's products. I believe both things could be brought about. All that is needed is the touchstone of someone who knows about production, who knows that the most glorious work in the country is not words, but work."

Did Not Produce
That trade agreements have not produced foreign markets for American farmers is evidenced by a drop of $104,000,000 in agricultural products exported during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1939, as compared with the fiscal year ending June 30, 1934—the year prior to the enactment of the Reciprocal Trade agreement act.

The 4 Amendments To Be Voted Nov. 5

Final wording and the order in which four proposals will appear on the general election ballot, Tuesday, November 5th, has been announced by Harry F. Kelly, Secretary of State. Interested parties have agreed on the wording of proposals which were in controversy. Mr. Kelly said.

Following are the proposals: Proposal No. 1—"Shall the Constitution be amended to authorize the electors of school districts to exceed the fifteen-dollar limitation for building purposes?" Adoption would permit electors to issue fifteen-year bonds to build or rebuild schools.

Proposal No. 2—"Shall the Constitution be amended to establish a new system of Civil Service for State Employment?"

Proposal No. 3—"Referendum on Section 3 of Article I of Act 261 of the Public Acts of 1939, which amends the Motor Carrier Act of 1933, to provide that no municipal corporation, or any agency or instrumentality thereof, shall operate as a common carrier of passengers for hire on the public highways of the State, except as provided in said Motor Carrier Act, without first obtaining from the Michigan Public Service Commission a certificate of permit to do so?"

This is the proposal against which the DSR of Detroit is waging a vigorous campaign.

Proposal No. 4—"This is the Dental Advertising Act, and the caption reads: 'Referendum on Act 122 of the Public Acts of 1939, being 'An act to regulate the practice of dentistry and dental surgery, and to repeal certain acts and parts of acts'?"

The text of this bill, about 5,000 words, and providing advertising by dentists, will be printed in full making the ballot the longest in recent state history, Secretary Kelly said.

HIGH CATHOLIC CLERGY DECLARE THIRD TERM ISSUE BARS F.D.R.

In an interview with the Denver Post, Monsignor Hugh L. McManis, Rector of the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, Denver, Colorado, declared:

"We must as loyal Americans, holding to policies laid down by Washington and Jefferson, defeat Roosevelt at the polls. Otherwise America as we have known and loved it is gone. This is not the first time we must put service to country above party. This is not a privilege but a duty. Never more earnestly than now must we accept the duty."

"A third term, which Roosevelt has accepted, is a violation of the Constitution."

"Dictatorship savors of war. Roosevelt as a third-term President would continue as commander in chief of the Army and Navy. Looking forward to the coming of the old Pennington-Hites-Lewis gang rolling in Washington, we'll find ourselves like the South American republics under a sort of foreign dictatorship. When Franklin D. Roosevelt said, 'I do not wish to continue as President,' he tossed an insult to me and every thinking citizen."

"Does he imagine that millions of American citizens, capable of thinking for themselves, will believe that he means a word he said or that the acceptance speech had not been carefully prepared long in advance?"

"Did Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, who appeared at the Chicago Convention, think we could take seriously her amazing statement that she was surprised to learn the delegates did not think themselves free to vote as they wished?"

"Both were flouting the intelligence of the American people."

"The only way we can preserve the policies of Washington and Lincoln, which are the foundation stones on which this government rests and has developed, is to defeat Roosevelt."

Head of Cleveland Diocese for Willkie

(From the Cleveland (O.) News)

Archbishop Joseph Schrembs, 74 year old head of the Cleveland Catholic diocese, who supported President Roosevelt in 1932 and 1936, said today he will vote for Wendell Willkie in November.

"I believe in the preservation of a sacred tradition," said the Archbishop, "with the sanction, and on the advice of some of our greatest Presidents—Washington and Jefferson and Lincoln—we have gone on for 150 years holding to the two-term theory. I should very much dislike to see it abandoned this year. Two terms are enough for any man."

The Archbishop said he liked Willkie because "he will attack our problems from a new angle."

Ladies Golf Club

The final get-together for the ladies and gentlemen of the Golf Club was held Sunday afternoon.

A potluck dinner was served at six o'clock followed by the awarding of the year's prizes for golf. Mrs. Roy Mines, games chairman, made the awards as follows:

Mrs. Robert Hayes (Jayne Key) won the championship trophy.

Roy Mines won the championship trophy.

Roy Mines also won the handicap trophy.

The party ended a very pleasant season for the Golf club and Ladies Auxiliary. Mrs. Esbern Olson has just finished a very successful year as president of the Auxiliary. A new kitchen has been built and another year will see it well equipped for serving meals.

With the abundance of rain that this country has had this summer together with the excellent work done by the caretaker, the course has been in wonderful shape.

On account of the cold season the golf prospects, however, were less than one year ago but this has been true of many of the golf courses through the north.

A golf course is one of the biggest assets in any town and every citizen of Grayling should help support it as much as possible.

Farewell Party

Seven of the Maple Foresters were hosts at a farewell party given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Jewell and baby, John Franklin, who are leaving very soon to make their home in Adrian. Mrs. Josephine Owen, Mrs. Ethel Hummel and Mrs. Martha Peterson were the chief hostesses of the lively affair, held at the Maple Forest town hall on September 28th.

The hall was beautifully decorated with autumn leaves and the table with candles and autumn colors.

The evening was spent in visiting and games, a grand march led by the hostesses ended at the head of a long table where each were presented with a lovely gift. Mrs. Jewell receiving a silver salad spoon engraved with initial and date. Mr. Jewell a leather billfold.

Lunch of assorted sandwiches, cakes and coffee was served. One of the surprises of the evening was a special cake made by Miss Peterson, trimmed with a horse shoe and three graduated roses, representing the three Jewells, with the words "Best Wishes and Good Luck."

The Jewells have been residing for the past eight and one-half years on the former Ben Shorman homestead. They were the grandparents of Mrs. Jewell.

HUNTERS' NOTICE TIME CHANGE IN SMALL GAME HUNTING THIS SEASON

The provision of the law declaring it to be unlawful for any person to hunt, pursue, worry or kill any ringnecked pheasants, squirrel, rabbits, ruffed grouse, sharpshinned grouse, or prairie chicken before 7 a. m. eastern standard time, each day of the open season, appears in paragraph 1-1 of section 10 of Act 335 of the 1939 legislature, which amended section 218 of the compiled laws of Michigan. Previously shooting was prohibited "before the hour of sunrise."

Alpena Football Team Here Monday

Monday, afternoon, October 14th, at 3 o'clock, the Grayling High school football team will meet the Alpena Reserve on the local gridiron. The Grayling squad will be seeking their first victory.

Eligibility has caused the loss of two regulars, Ross Thompson, left half, and Eugene Corwin, right guard. Neglect to be at full strength is going to be a blow to the team because it was felt the squad had progressed to the point where victories should come. However, the situation may be solved by moving Andreas, the hard-nitting fullback, to the important left half post. Jack Chasen, reserve fullback, or Ed Dunnham, regular end, will fill the fullback spot. Gerald Melnar, rugby sophomore, will take over Dunham's end position in case the veteran, wounded in action, fullback, Arthur Fairbairn, and Robert Luchapell, will be ready to assume the right guard position.

The other regulars, McDonnell, right end, Bill Stevenson, right tackle, Gorman, left guard, Welch, center, Hatfield, left tackle, Rutkowski, right half, and Clark, quarterback, are ready to go and anxious to start the football team on a victory march. Kolka, Perry, Giegling, Woods, D. Sorrens, Burns, Anthony, Stevenson, Case, and Gierke have been coming along fast and will be able to give a good account of themselves when the opportunity arrives. Sandy Thompson and Bernard Palmer, members of the squad, will not be able to compete this week.

Saturday, October 19th, the Grayling squad plays Onaway, a conference foe, there, and at that time we hope that our eligible members of the squad will have their work made up, giving us full strength. The last home game will be played with Manistota on October 26th.

The Gaylord! On Saturday, September 28th, the Gaylord and Grayling football teams played to a 7-7 tie.

Grayling scored in the second quarter on a pass, Thompson to Ruthowski, from the city yard line. The local squad played inspired ball with improved blocking and tackling. The Grayling sweeps and reverses gained regularly and with a little more experience the Green and White footballers could easily have scored the nod.

Gaylord, handicapped by injuries, played good ball and scored in the last quarter on a cut-back.

All in all, the game was fitting to the reopening of football relations between Grayling and Gaylord High schools. It was a clean, hard fought battle, nice to watch.

The officials for the Alpena game will be: Tope, Kalkaska, referee; Nolan, Roscommon, umpire.

Admission will be 25c for adults and 10c for students. Be there for the kickoff at 2:30.

Building Better Citizens

—is the title of a bulletin released by the Department of Public Instruction this week. According to Superintendent Eugene B. Elliott, the department has been working on such a program for many years. However, world events have jarred our citizens into new realization that we must act vigorously and at once if we are to save our American form of government.

The legislature has given specific duties to the Superintendent of Public Instruction. It makes the education of aliens and illiterates one of his responsibilities. It specifies that civic education must be taught in all public and private schools as well as in colleges receiving public funds.

The bulletin outlines a program of citizenship not only for the school but offers definite suggestions for the parents, the community, and patriotic organizations. It stresses the importance of immediate action in the individual communities. Copies of the pamphlet may be secured by writing your county school commissioner, or Dr. Eugene B. Elliott, Superintendent of Public Instruction, Lansing.

Artizona

Historians and archeologists are taking part in a friendly dispute over the origin of the word Arizona. Some argue it is derived from the Aztec word Arizuma, meaning "silvery bearing." Others say it is a derivative of the Papago, Indian word alezhon, meaning "small springs."

A full day's program is planned starting with a convocation of the cottage hotel and cabin operators at 10:30 a. m., Hotel Wenonah. Under the chairmanship of William J. Schill, manager of the Banerett House at Saginaw, two important topics will be discussed. Bernard R. Proulx, head of Hotel Administration at Michigan State College, will lead the discussion concerning "Personal Training" and the other subject is "Resort Sanitation" by John M. Hepler, Director Bureau of Engineering, Michigan Department of Health.

At 12:00 the officers' luncheon for East Michigan newspaper publishers will be held at the Republic Hotel. The chairman is Schuyler L. Marshall, editor of the Clinton County Republican at St. Johns.

At 2:30 p. m. the business session of the Association will take place at the Supervisors' room, Bay county building. President Howard W. Smith of Port Hope will take charge of this meeting. The main duty of this meeting is to elect officers for the following year.

At 6:30 p. m. the traditional "Good Fellowship" annual supper will be staged at the Hotel Wenonah. The toastmaster is Michael A. Gorman, editor of the Flint Journal and often characterized as "Michigan's Number 1 Toastmaster." An address will be delivered by L. C. Allmen, Vice-president of the Fruehauf Trailer Corporation, Detroit. His subject is "Transportation" and promises to throw a few verbal bombshells. Anne Campbell, widely known Michigan poetess from Detroit, will appear. Both candidates for governor have been extended an invitation. The community singing will be in charge of Ted Niedzielski of Bay City who directed the singing at the state convention of Lions Clubs held in St. Joseph last spring.

Displayed around the banquet hall will be seen flags especially designed for Michigan counties by the J. L. Hudson Company, Detroit. These flags were made available through the courtesy of J. B. Mills, publicity director of the Detroit firm.

To Form Past President's Club

Plans are being made to form a Past Presidents' Club in the Northeastern District of the Michigan Federation of Women's Clubs. On the evening of October 14, before the opening of the 19th annual convention of the Northeastern district in Mt. Pleasant, most of the ten past presidents of the organization will meet at the home of Mrs. Chester A. Welch for a social evening and to complete the plans for the organization.

The Michigan Federation of Women's Clubs was organized in Lansing in 1895, but the Northeastern district is a comparatively youthful division of the state federation, since it was not a separate district until 1922.

The women who have served as president of the Northeastern District and who are interested in establishing the Past Presidents' Club, are as follows: Mrs. Charles Vowles, of Mt. Pleasant, who was president of the Northeastern district just previous to its being divided into two districts; Mrs. Margaret Temple Smith of Grosse Pointe, formerly of Bay City, and president of the Northeastern district at the time of the division; Miss Marie Comstock, of Detroit, formerly of Alpena, and the first president of the Northeastern district; Mrs. W. E. Chapman of Cheboygan; Mrs. A. E. Mulder of Clare; Mrs. Edith Dusenbury of Mt. Pleasant; Mrs. George Stanford of Midland; Mrs. H. W. Haddock of Bay City who is at present in Saskatchewan; Mrs. Chester A. Welch of Mt. Pleasant; Miss Frances Garvey of Alpena, recently retired president; and Mrs. Lloyd J. Wagoner, the present president.

The Northeastern District of the Michigan Federation of Women's Clubs was formed in the spring of 1922 at a meeting held in Alpena, at which meeting Mrs. Margaret Temple Smith of Bay City, then president of the Northeastern district, presided.

Previous to that time, all of the lower peninsula of Michigan lying north of a line drawn from the southern boundary of Bay County to Lake Michigan was included in one district—much too large a territory for one person to handle as the number of clubs increased. Therefore after several meetings of the state executive board it was decided to divide the territory into two districts and the first meeting of the Northeastern District was held in Alpena while the first meeting of the Northwestern District was held in Evart. At the meeting in Alpena, Miss Marie Comstock of Alpena was elected to succeed Mrs. Smith whose term was expiring.

There are now 34 federated women's clubs in the Northeastern District which comprises the 16 counties in the Northeastern part of the lower peninsula, namely: Alcona, Alpena, Arenac, Bay, Cheboygan, Crawford, Gladwin, Iosco, Isabella, Midland, Montmorency, Ogemaw, Osceola, Otsego, Presque Isle and Roscommon.

At the forthcoming convention representatives will be present from clubs in Alpena, Midland, Bay City, Standish, Tawas City,

Game Reported Unusually Plentiful

Rainy summer weather that produced an abundance of food and cover for game is proving not an unmixed blessing to hunters already in the field in the upper peninsula after rainfall and sharpstart a grouse, prairie chicken, cottontail rabbits and snowshoe hares. The heavy foliage is only now beginning to turn color and tall, masting shooting difficult because of poor visibility now and promising noisy wood-later. Conservation officers report supplies of game are generally good.

While upland bird hunters may wish for frosts and windy weather, wildwaters are happy because mild weather has kept a plentiful supply of ducks feeding on marshes, lakes and ponds. Because of abundant rainfall conditions have been good for mallards and other local ducks, with many a pond and potato dry by this time in former years now sheltering Michigan's big waterfowl.

The open season on pheasant, grouse, rabbits and squirrels is begun in lower Michigan October 15.

F. D. R.'s Economy Pledge Broken

The Democratic plan of 1922 declared: "We advocate an immediate and drastic reduction of government expenditures by abolishing useless commissions and offices, consolidating departments and bureaus, and eliminating extravagance, to accomplish a saving of not less than 25 per cent in the cost of Federal Government."

In the light of this pledge, let's look at the record. Federal expenditures have increased under President Roosevelt from $3,794,000,000 in 1933 to $9,142,000,000 in 1939.

The total Federal expenditures increased by 141 per cent from 1933 to 1939. Largely thru an expansion of boards, commissions, personnel, and functions, the ordinary expenditures were increased 66 per cent from 1933 to 1939. Total emergency and relief expenditures were increased by 374 per cent from 1933 to 1939.

During the period of the New Deal, more than 75 new government agencies have been created, employing many thousands.

Reason for Surplus

From July 1, 1937, through June 30, 1939, the Federal Surplus Commodities Corporation spent $30,479,000 in disposing of surpluses of 20 American farm commodities which were subject to tariff concessions under New Deal reciprocal trade agreements. During the same period we imported from foreign countries these same commodities to the value of $92,298,000.

Less in Pork Products

America sold to foreign countries 84,175,000 pounds of hams, shoulders, bacon and sides in 1932. For 1938 our foreign sale of these products of American farms was only 63,559,000 pounds, despite New Deal trade agreements.

Short Items About 1941 Ford Cars

A new body type in the 1941 Ford line is the Super DeLuxe Sedan coupe. It combines the advantages of a compact coupe with seat room for six passengers.

An automatic hood lock is a new feature in the 1941 Ford cars. When the hood is closed, it locks. A release control is located inside the car, just under the instrument panel. This feature prevents anyone from tampering with engine or battery when car doors are locked.

A new eight drivers is the standard control for instrument panel lights. It is standard equipment on all 1941 Ford cars.

Gasoline tank filler caps have been changed on the 1941 Ford cars. A hinged door on the left side covers the filler cap.

Ford designers have increased wheelbase width by seven inches in 1941 models. Five inches of wheelbase were added to the rear wheel drive arm rests.

If you've ever tried to find a light in the dark, you'll appreciate the fact that the ignition keyhole on the 1941 Ford cars is illuminated when the instrument panel lights are turned on.

This Railroad Grew

Ninety years ago, a 12-mile railroad (but just as wide as any!) was being built from West Chicago to Aurora. In the 90 years that have ensued, the Burlington railroad has grown to 9,018 miles in 1939. And, announced President Budd in his 1940 report, it made $3,661,339.35 net last year, 3.28 per cent more than in 1938, and several per cent more than in 1940, too.

A few valuable vestiges of a glorious past are being salvaged in war-torn Europe. A recent release in the New York Times stated that old manuscripts and records of Dr. Robert Koch, discoverer of the tubercle bacillus, have been found in war-ravaged Poland, and will be preserved.
